

Do NOT weaken the "no call" rule to allow an 18 month exemption for certain businesses to make telemarketing calls. Since signing up for Wisconsin's no call list, we have been "saved" from the incessant calls which invariably interrupted our dinner hour. This time should be preserved for the family for sharing and conversation over a family meal.